Mission Statement

The mission of Sacred Heart Church, as witnessed by five generations of worshipers through times of war, fire, and flood, is to:

- build a community of faith by worshipping together;
- love God and our neighbor as ourselves;
- sow seeds of hope for everyone;
- foster and inspire active participation of all parishioners in the total life of the church, and
- utilize active ministries devoted to sharing time, talent, and treasures of parishioners to enhance the quality of life for the praise and glory of God and service to others

Parish Announcements

RETIREMENT OF DANITA COCO, THE SECRETARY OF SACRED HEART CHURCH – After 28 years of service as secretary and bookkeeper of Sacred Heart Church, Danita Coco has retired. She began working for the parish office when Rev. Msgr. Timmermans was Pastor and worked under former Pastors including Rev. Joseph Montalbano, Rev. George Krosfield, and Rev. Marc Noel. She was always committed, faithful, available and punctual. She welcomed everyone with a big smile, whether at the door or over the phone. She worked very hard and took care of everything on time. She was also dedicated to Sacred Heart School as bookkeeper. Danita has agreed to come to the Parish Office as needed to help the new secretary in training. We appreciate and thank Danita Coco for her wonderful service and wish her good health, peace, and joy in her retirement.

THANK YOU – So many of you have wished me a happy and a healthy retirement. I thank you all for those good wishes, cards, gifts and yes, even those hugs that made me very teary eyed. Thank you all for making my career and retirement of Sacred Heart Parish a happy one. Danita B. Coco

WELCOME – We welcome Christine Soldani as the new secretary of Sacred Heart Church.
